

You better legislate something to get rid of the spam and pop-ups I am NOT paying for and do NOT want instead of going after the information I need, want, and pay for. Stop protecting big business, and do something for the average Joe for once.